

JOHN DILLINGER IS BEING HUNTED IN ST. PAUL AREA

PHYSICIAN WHO TREATED BANDIT IS SUSPENDED

Government Plans To Use Army Planes In Search

St. Paul, April 26.—(P)—The wide-spread manhunt for John Dillinger, once more focused on St. Paul today with disclosures that not only—but twice—the desperado had gun wounds treated here.

The development resulted in the suspension of city health officer Dr. N. G. Mortensen for caring for the wounded outlaw.

He was the second twin city physician to become involved in Dillinger's episodic career.

The chase continued as the federal government concentrated its forces in this vicinity.

Some 5,000 peace officers were on the alert for the here-today gone-tomorrow criminal as suspicion hovered in widely separated parts of the nation, giving rise to rumors, reports and tips that "Dillinger was seen here"—Chicago, Hammond, Ind., Staunton, Va. and in Pennsylvania.

The government was prepared to use the war department's airplane facilities if necessary, said Attorney General Cummings, who recently referred to this area as a "poison spot of crime."

St. Paul, the hunters believed, afforded the most likely digging place for clues, chiefly because of their knowledge that it was from here the arch criminal and his mob at least three times planned their raiding sorties, sallied out to execute them and then skulked back into their twin city hideouts.

Spurred by fear another crime scheme was afoot the government intensified its hunt for the will the wisp fugitive whose luck still held through many of the men and women of his acquaintance are paying.

Dr. Mortensen was the latest. He was suspended after admitting he had treated Dillinger and John Hamilton his chief lieutenant, the middle of March for gunshot wounds.

The health officer's confusion as to whether the date was March 13, 34 or 15 prevented authorities from determining whether it was in the Sioux Falls, S. D., Security National Bank raid that the desperadoes were wounded or in the robbery of a Mason City, Iowa, bank.

The wounds, Mortensen said, were in the shoulders and were not dangerous. They were cleaned and the men, brought there by a third party, were to return to the health officer's office the next day. They never appeared.

Dr. Mortensen failed to report the incident until shown pictures of Dillinger and Hamilton a few days ago.

It was March 31 the gunner was wounded a second time, in the leg, as he and Evelyn Frechette, his sweetheart, shot their way out of an apartment here when surprised by two federal agents and a city detective.

After that brush with the law, the gunner sought medical attention from Dr. Clayton E. May, Minneapolis. Both physicians said they received no remuneration.

May is held on charges of harboring a fugitive, as is the Frechette woman. Dr. May told authorities, it was reported, that he was threatened with harm if he disclosed that he treated Dillinger.

A raid on the Warsaw, Ind., police station for bullet proof vests followed, and last Sunday the gunner, with his mob of suspected kidnapers, bank robbers and killers, machine-gunned their way out of a trap at the Little Bohemian resort near Mercer, Wis.

John Dillinger Turns Chicken Thief Is Claim

Rockford, Ill., April 26.—(P)—When B. J. Worden went out to the back yard coop today he found that 12 chickens were gone but discovered this note:

"Thanks a thousand times, folks. I am sorry but famished. (signed) John Dillinger."

LEADERS CLAIM ILLINOIS NRA BILL IS DEAD

Measure Cannot Pass At This Session Is Belief

Springfield, Ill., April 26.—(P)—Nothing was done about the state NRA bill today and the belief grew that the administration-sponsored plan couldn't be enacted by the third special session.

House leaders agreed to complete their work this week and then found that the Democrats apparently didn't have enough strength to amend the bill today.

Plans had been made to hold a Friday session at which the bill for state cooperation in the enforcement of recovery codes would be sent to the senate, for final action there next week.

Democratic spokesmen would not comment, but rumors were that Republican maneuvers had virtually killed the measure.

Agreement to wind up house business this week, holding perfunctory sessions until the senate then could get ready for sine die adjournment, was reached on a resolution by the Republican leader, Elmer J. Schnackenberg of Chicago.

Many Associates

Then it was found that many Democrats were absent, part of them having been called to Chicago for a party meeting.

Administration supporters had planned to amend the NRA bill today, making changes to meet some of the objections raised at yesterday's hearing. But the bill was left on second reading when the house adjourned late in the day.

It was feared that if the amending process was started, the Republican opposition might move to strike the enacting clause, the quickest means of killing legislation. Weakened Democrats apparently were afraid to take that risk.

Uncertainty prevailed along with reports that the governor refused to permit the bill to be discarded.

If amendments are voted tomorrow, a Saturday session would be required to send the bill to the senate, unless the representatives return in full strength next week. That was regarded as improbable.

Discharging its employees, the senate planned to come back next week only long enough to send the NRA plan to the governor and then break up the concurrent second and third special sessions.

The house was ready to take final action tomorrow on the companion appropriation bills to the gas diversion plan for school relief.

House action today included: Another refusal to create a special commission, to study the school financing problem. This was held unnecessary by school spokesmen.

Failure to discharge the special committee which has prevented action on mortgage moratorium bills.

Passage of a non-emergency senate bill permitting building and loan associations to federalize and qualify for RFC loans.

Passage of senate bills required that political subdivisions pay tax warrants in the order of issuance, preventing payments to preferred creditors.

Debate and further amendment of the Mundy bill to change the method of paying blind pensions.

Farmer Studies Tax Statement Then Suicides

Pekin, Ill., April 26.—(P)—After studying his tax statement, John Malotti, a bachelor farmer living near Mackinaw, went to his barn and hanged himself today, authorities said. Friends said he had indicated there had been some mistake in the notice. Malotti was 45.

WILL PAY TEACHERS

Chicago, April 26.—(P)—Chicago school teachers will be paid tomorrow. The checks will contain salary vouchers for the month of June, 1933. Checks will be sent to 13,000 school teachers and 4,000 civil service employees of the school board.

NO DAYLIGHT SAVING

Champaign, Ill., April 26.—(P)—A proposal to adopt daylight saving time was defeated today, 1570 to 1492, in a referendum of Champaign voters.

REPUBLICANS TO OPPOSE F. D. R.'S TARIFF MEASURE

Will Demand That All Industries Get Hearing

By Richard L. Turner
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington April 26.—(P)—Republican opposition to the Roosevelt reciprocal tariff bill coalesced into a vigorous drive for an amendment assuring hearings to affected industries before any change is made in the duty on their products.

This became unmistakably clear after a day of hearings in which Senator Reed (R., Pa.) and other republican members of the senate finance committee fired a broadside of sharply worded cross examination at two cabinet members, Secretaries Hull and Wallace.

At one point, Senator Connally (D., Tex.) objected to what he termed "partisan heckling," and at another Senator Clark (D., Mo.) interposed the remark that "no amount of hearing would convince the senator from Pennsylvania that it was advisable to decrease any tariff rate."

Purpose of Bill

In an extemporaneous explanation of the purposes of the bill, Wallace said it was intended to increase foreign purchasing power and if successful the administration's acreage control program could be curtailed or eliminated, which, he added, "would make us at the department of agriculture very happy."

He pleaded with the committee for a non-partisan approach to the problem, asserting that "the executive branch of the government is better able to formulate a well rounded policy than congress" and that with "suitable advisers the president could determine those articles of which we could accept more from abroad with least damage to our industrial structure."

"Would you oppose an amendment requiring that notice be given to industries and they be given an opportunity to present their side of the case before the tariff on their products is changed?" Asked Reed.

"I do not know what the stand of the administration would be on that; it seems to me to be a matter of common sense and executive routine," replied Wallace.

Reed then swung into the question of what Wallace said or did not say about the inefficiency of the beet sugar and the lace industries, recalling that in his preliminary statement Wallace had said the president was opposed to the expansion of industries which were inefficient from the point of view of their ability to meet world competition.

"Did you say before another committee, as reported in the papers that the beet sugar and lace industries were inefficient?" Reed asked.

"I probably have said that. I am not sure of the exact wording."

"From the standpoint of my definition they are decidedly inefficient industries."

Reed tried unsuccessfully to get from both Hull and Wallace a statement as to what commodities the administration might have in mind for tariff adjustments under the measure. The former thought it inadvisable to make such a statement and Wallace declared it would take study to determine just which would be included.

Holdup, Eh? Take That and That!

Bandits hold no terrors for E. C. Weber, Round Lake, Ill., bank president, who here demonstrates how he routed three would-be robbers who walked into his bank and announced a holdup. Shouting, "The hell it is," he dodged behind a bulletproof shield, and opened fire. The bandits fled and he followed, wounding one, who was captured, while the other two escaped.

Just What Japan Means by "Leave China Alone" Policy Being Discussed by Powers

INSULL UTILITY RECEIVERSHIPS NOT FRAUDULENT

Judge Walter Lindley Hands Down His Opinion

Chicago, April 26.—(P)—A general investigation into charges that Sam Insull saw his utilities kingdom tottering and guided its fall to his own profit was closed today with a finding that the receiverships have been fraudulent.

Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley announced two major findings about how the parent company of the Insull set-up was put into receivership. One was that he-the Judge-was somewhat misled by creditor banks when he appointed Insull himself as one of the receivers.

The other was that the two Chicago financiers to whom the company was entrusted-after Insull himself had been dismissed-had managed the giant billion dollar concern creditably.

The Judge handed down a 51 page opinion after hearing in which a stockholder had charged that Insull and Chicago and New York bankers "steered" the receivership. Testimony was that with Insull still seeking to dominate, the bankers met, selected the company which would start court action, and agreed upon the receivership.

In this and in charges that the receivers were too deeply interested to serve Judge Lindley found "no evidence that fraud or collusion was practiced upon the court." He named Insull, the late Edward N. Hurley, and Charles A. McCulloch as receivers in April, 1932.

As for himself, in appointing Insull, the Judge said:

"The appointment of Insull was made for the sole reason of giving the other two receivers the benefit of his knowledge and experience."

But the creditor bankers should have advised him, he said, of Insull's "previous sanction of questionable use of middlewest funds."

"This is not a judicial finding that there was fraud in failing to disclose these facts," the Judge continued, "but it indicates what should be done in these 'consent receiverships'."

"I told Mr. Hurley and Mr. McCulloch, in Mr. Insull's presence, that I expected them to keep a drastic curb on Insull's well known tendency to dominate and dominate."

"They evidenced their own sincerity when, after it had been discovered that Insull had transferred corporate funds, they told Mr. Insull he must resign."

As to the secret conferences over the throwing the huge holding company into court, the four Chicago bankers which were represented had a proper interest, the Judge found. "They held as collateral against loans more than 3,700,000 shares of middlewest common stock," he said.

"The fact that none of these parties attempted to unload these stocks upon the public x x x merits commendation," he added.

Under the management of Hurley and McCulloch, the Judge said, the company has been lifted to "the verge of an attempt to reorganize."

HONOR STUDENTS

Urbana, Ill., April 26.—(P)—Mildred Ruth Chapin, Sullivan Ill., was named valedictorian and Harold A. ## ABDUCTORS OF CHILD DEMAND LARGE RANSOM

Six Year Old Arizona Girl Is Held For $10,000

Tucson, Ariz., April 26.—(P)—A thousand men ready to shoot it out at the bat of an eyelid—among them the officers to whom John Dillinger and his outlaw gang surrendered meekly here last January—went gunning today for the abductors of 6-year-old June Robles. The kidnappers of the girl suddenly reduced their ransom demand from $15,000 to $10,000.

Quick-shooting cowboys and descendants of frontiersmen, who grew up with the wild west under the law of the pistol and the rope, joined officers in canvassing Tucson with microscope thoroughness, determined to find the granddaughter of the reputedly wealthy Bernabe Robles, a cattle baron since Spanish land grant days.

While the search gained momentum and a muttering crowd of several hundred persons gathered at the Pima county courthouse spreading lynch talk, the old cattlemen received a second ransom note in a manner not made public. Its delivery was announced by Undersheriff Colby S. Farrar. It read:

Child safe. We're willing to reduce ransom to $10,000. If you act quickly child will be returned safely as per instructions. Obey instructions. Z"

It was the second note from the abductors since the child was picked up and whisked away yesterday as she was going home from school. The first note was delivered to the girl's father, Fernando Robles, operator of an electric store, about two hours after June was vanished.

It demanded $15,000 and although its exact contents were not divulged, it was understood to demand that the grandfather drive alone along a country road each evening at 9 o'clock with the money, until contact was made.

It was the purpose of officers to take Tucson from end to end in the hunt for the little girl, and then, if still empty handed, to take to the hills.

Two men and a woman were believed by authorities to be involved in the seizure of little June, although they did not indicate whether there were clues to their identity.

A college student and two other men were taken into custody last night. The student remained in jail although officers did not suspect him of connection with the kidnapping. He admitted police said, that he offered a newsboy $10 to take a note to Bernabe Robles as "a prank." The newsboy refused, noted the number of his automobile and officers took the student and his two companions into custody. The companions were released but police said they would keep the student in jail "to teach him a lesson."

Governor B. B. Mower ordered the state highway patrol force mobilized in Tucson and considered offering a reward for the capture of the abductors.

GASOLINE TAX FUND PROVIDES AID FOR SCHOOL

Jacksonville To Receive From $12,800 To $21,000 a Year, Report

Diversion of one third of the state gasoline tax into the state school distributive fund is welcome news to the Jacksonville board of education, Dr. R. O. Stoops said, for it means that the system will be able to operate for a year by using its share of the fund and anticipating on tax levies to the limit, without further drastic economies. The use of gasoline tax funds for the school fund will bring Jacksonville's receipts from about $12,800 a year to $21,000 a year, from the state he explained.

At present the school district, of which Jacksonville high school, junior high and the grades are members, receives $1,183 each month for 12 months from the occupational tax which has been diverted into the school distributive fund. This replaces after the expenses of the township treasurer are taken out, in a fund of about $12,800 a year.

It has been estimated that the gasoline tax diversion bill will put about $7,000,000 in the state distributive fund, of which this district will receive about $5,500. The payment of this district's share will be made in monthly installments for eight months, under the present plans, beginning in July and running through February, with slightly more than $1,000 expected each month.

However, in spite of this increased revenue, it will be necessary for the board to continue in all of the economies they have effected this year. The school district, with the aid of this fund, expects to be able to operate within its budget during the coming year, but probably will be required to anticipate to its full extent.

Officials in the state house have assured the school districts that as soon as the Chicago back taxes for 1930, '31 and '32 have been collected, each district's share will be sent them immediately. There is about $12,000,000 due the state for the distributive fund, of which this district is entitled to $14,000.

CRIME WAVE IS STILL SWEEPING ACROSS NATION

Bank Bandit Is Shot, Captured

This would-be robber, Ellsworth Ferguson, is in jail, a bullet wound in one leg, because a bank president started to shoot, instead of handing over his money. Ferguson was captured in an attempted robbery of the Round Lake, Ill., bank, his two companions fleeing after he was shot and seized by townsmen.

LABOR AND RAIL HEADS AGREE ON NEW WAGE SCALE

Pay Reduction Will Be Returned To Workers

By the Associated Press.
Labor and the boss turned some corners together in the hunt for industrial peace yesterday.

The railway wage question that federal mediation had failed to settle was answered at last by an agreement to wipe out by April 1, 1935, the existing ten per cent deduction from basic wages.

Two and one-half per cent of the cut will be removed next July 1, another 24 per cent Jan. 1, 1935, and the basic level will be restored April 1. The Cleveland gasoline station attendants' strike sprung an encouraging leak. Forty stations reopened under new agreements and the petroleum labor policy board strove to bring the rest back to work. But the gasoline drought made strap-hangers out of thousands of motorists.

Johnson Hopeful

Despite the hope of Hugh S. Johnson that thousands of Fisher Body, Chevrolet and allied automotive workers might be back at work shortly, the automobile labor board remarked that "a situation that has obtained for months cannot be changed in a day."

The labor board was working night and day to settle the Fisher strike at Cleveland, considered the key log in the jam.

A striking Chevrolet employee at St. Louis died of a knife wound, and a working employee, held by police, was quoted as admitting he stabbed in self defense.

Full operations resumed at the Piquette, O., Val Decker packing plant after federal mediation gained 300 employees a 12 1/2 per cent wage boost. Whether this restored wage cuts was not announced.

Forty persons were arrested and many slightly hurt in a clash between police and several hundred strikers and sympathizers at the M. and M. Knitting Mills in Philadelphia, which reopened while 44 other mills remained closed by a general knitting goods strike.

Iron, steel and tin workers in convention at Pittsburgh determined to ask a 15 per cent wage increase, and began discussing their stand on a new tin plate scale.

By J. H. Jenkins

Associated Press Staff Writer.
Washington, April 26.—(P)—Railroad workers and their employers worked out an arrangement today for giving back to the workers during the next year the ten per cent that had been cut from their wages.

The agreement was reached in amicable negotiations after the administration had given up hope of a friendly settlement through such conferences.

It ended a month of claims and counter claims during which a committee composed of a dozen railroad managers and 21 representatives of labor unions had argued across a conference table.

This is what they worked out: The railroads will increase wages 2 1/2 per cent July 1; 24 per cent Jan. 1, 1935. (Continued on Page Ten)

KIDNAPINGS ARE REPORTED FROM THREE STATES

Half Of Lindbergh Ransom Money Is Found, Claim

By the Associated Press.
Discovery of more than half of the $50,000 Lindbergh ransom money in New England was reported Thursday by Boston newspapers, but was quickly denied by the department of justice and New York City and New Jersey state police.

Arizona authorities sought the kidnapers of 6-year-old June Robles, for whom her abductors first demanded $15,000 ransom, then $10,000. Angry Tucson citizens gathered on the court house lawn, talked freely of lynching and waited developments.

In Washington the House judiciary committee approved a measure to permit the death penalty for interstate kidnappings. Other legislation stamped with presidential approval seemed certain to pass Congress. The bill provides that failure of a victim to be returned within seven days shall be presumed as evidence of his having been transported across a state line.

Also in Washington Attorney General Cummings attended the funeral of a department of justice agent, while in Wisconsin 5,000 federal agents, police, sheriffs, constables and militia sought to silence the guns that had slain him—those of the John Dillinger gang.

After the funeral Cummings said the government was prepared to use the war department's air corps if necessary to locate the Dillinger gang in the area Cummings called a "poison spot of crime."

In St. Paul, Commissioner of Health John McDonald suspended Dr. N. G. Mortensen, city health officer, who admitted he dressed the wounds of Dillinger and his lieutenant, John Hamilton. Mortensen said he did so under threat.

Two ex-convicts in Belleville, Ill., Joseph LaCompte, 22, and James Lambert, 27, were arrested on reports that they planned to kidnap William N. Baltz, former congressman, and rob his bank in nearby Millstadt. The informant was Herman Darneloh, 32, another ex-convict.

In Chicago police captured Ludwig (Dutch) Schmidt without a struggle. Schmidt's pals have been sentenced to 99-year terms and he is wanted both for the $70,000 John Factor kidnaping and a $105,000 mail robbery at Charlotte, N. C. He is one of the list of tough gangsters at large.

Five-year-old Mary Lou Carline was found and returned to her Minneapolis home four hours after a strange man forced her into an automobile.

Echoes of a recent murder in Washington, D. C., sprang up in a Philadelphia suburb where a pajama-clad Washington woman was found in a critical condition from gunshot wounds, lying on the steps of a house in which she had been held captive.

Max Chapman, wanted in Boston for kidnaping, sat in Kansas City jail awaiting extradition to Massachusetts.

Authorities in Texas promised a quick trial for Raymond Hamilton, bad man of the southwest captured after an intensive search.

Mrs. Elvina Kohler was taken to Sioux Falls, S. D., from St. Paul for trial on charges of conspiracy in the $60,000 Charles Boettcher, II, kidnaping at Denver. Mrs. Kohler's brother-in-law, Verne Sankey, Boettcher's abductor, committed suicide in jail at Sioux Falls while awaiting trial.

Boston, April 26.—(P)—The discovery in New England of a large portion of the $50,000 ransom money paid by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh after the kidnapping of his infant son was reported and denied today.

Late editions of Boston newspapers announced that more than half of the $50,000 which Dr. John P. "Japsie" Condon tossed over a Bronx wall as ransom for return of the kidnapped son of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh had turned up through the Federal Reserve bank in Boston.

William W. Padlock, deputy governor of the bank, denied any knowledge of the recovery of the money, which was said in the publishers' reports to amount to as much as $30,000. One report said this had been unloaded in amounts of $4,000 and $5,000 during the past six months.

At Rutland, Vt., Boston newspapers said a group of 30 or more department of justice agents had been concentrated under orders of Clarence D. McKean, chief of the bureau of investigation for New England. At offices of the bureau here the only information forthcoming was a statement of one official that the men were there in connection with "a kidnapping." No kidnapping has recently been reported in that section.

Department of justice officials in Washington said, however, that reports of the finding of Lindbergh ransom money in New England were unfounded and Attorney General Cummings said there was no concentration of federal agents in Vermont.

Our Borderline Life

A transaction that illustrates how much in the shadow of the underworld American life is today took place this week in Kansas City. Last January 31 the State Bank of Independence, Kansas, was robbed. The bandits scooped up $10,000 in cash,
and as they left the bank, took with
them a portfolio containing $200,000 worth of stocks and bonds which had been turned over to the bank by customers as collateral for loans.

In a Kansas City hotel Tuesday, attorneys for the bank bargained with agents of the underworld and got back the securities by the payment of $25,000 in cash. Two hotel rooms were used by the attorneys and agents and it took some time to make the deal.
The money was taken to a central agency, also the securities. The stocks and bonds were checked, and then the money was paid.

The securities were tied in five bundles, and every time a bundle was delivered, the gang got $5,000 in bills.
The transaction took so long that the underworld agents became worried
and brought the three last bundles of securities all at once, and took the final payment of $15,000.

The entire affair was carried on with the greatest secrecy, and the story was not printed until the bank
was ready to announce that it had recovered for its customers the $200,- 000 worth of securities. The net haul of the underworld on that deal was $35,000. The bundles of bonds showed they had been buried for sometime.

The greatest difficulty encountered
by the law in coping with criminals arises from the efforts of those who have been robbed to recover what they lost. If they can get back only a part of the stolen property, they are often willing to bargain with the perpetrators of crime and allow them to go scot free.

Under such circumstances, many a serious crime goes unsolved and its promoters unpunished. Criminals are allowed to profit, because their victims do not wish to lose money. The law is thwarted, and justice is set at naught.

Those who acted for the Kansas
bank were told to get the securities,
rather than information as to the identity of the criminals. The punishment of the law-breakers was a secondary matter, and just as long as it is made so, crime will continue to flourish and criminals to prey on good citizens. We shall continue to dwell in the shadow of the underworld, and the crafty denizens of crime haunts will move about among us and exact tribute.

Alimony Row

Nineteen men are in Cook county jail for six months because they won't pay their wives alimony. They are in arrears, and they have been sent to a debtors' prison. They eat, sleep and read, and feel bitter toward the women who have had them incarcerated. But they also feel that they are having a good time at the county's expense, and that jail is not the place of punishment it is reputed to be.

These men are not evil doers. Their offenses is not one society cares to punish. They are really objects of sympathy. Society treats sternly the man who fails to support his minor children, but it is indifferent when he refuses to pay for the support of a wife with whom he cannot agree, and
who insists on living apart from him,
but at the same time sharing his income.

It has always been a puzzle how a man can remain in jail and still find money to pay a debt. Some day society will become sufficiently enlightened to see that this is not possible, and the laws which create the debtors' prison
will be blotted out forever. As one author remarks, we are yet only 12,- 000 years from the stone age. Give a little more time.

Those Dust Storms

Morgan county citizens could have closed their eyes last Monday and imagined they were in Kansas. In fact, many of them did close their eyes to keep out the dust. It blew and blew, sudden gusts that carried millions of fine particles swirling up streets and into homes; crazy little whirlwinds that picked up more dust
and mixed it with some that may have come from neighboring states.
This was Morgan county's second dust
storm in less than a year.

Toward evening the sky took on a peculiar cast. The dust formed a dingy cloud that hung low, impairing visibility. Such a condition is a novelty to this section of the country. We are not used to dust storms. Are we going to get them frequently in the future, many people wondered.

Illinois weather, according to the old belief, is likely to produce anything. It is temperamental, changeable, erratic in its habits. Early snows, late snows, cyclones, floods, all have visited Illinois. But the dust storm of such wide proportions is something new. Other countries reported similar conditions.

Two dust storms within a year
might indicate that something new in the way of weather is in store for this state. On the other hand, these may have been the result of unusual disturbances that may not exist again for years. Illinois doesn't want to outdo Kansas, Texas or some of the other western states in respect to dust storms.

Without consulting recognized authorities on climatic conditions, we will make a guess that the continued deficiency in rainfall through this section of the country is partly responsible for the latest dust storm.
The rainfall in Illinois during the last year has been about half of what it should be. With the top-soil very much dried in many places a high wind lifts the dust and carries it away to produce an unusual sight.

All of the dust, of course, was not lifted from Illinois. The wind is said to have swept across Iowa and other states to the northwest. There probably was a mixture of a powdery soil
from several states.

Millions of acres over the Central West are now in the first stages of cultivation for the season. Fields have been plowed and worked down ready for planting. Winds that swept over the surface of these fields are certain to carry off a few souvenirs. Continued winds raise a dust that grows
in intensity as they move and are prolonged.

Prolonged lack of precipitation,
combined with the planting season
when great areas of ground are broken, may account to some extent for the dust clouds. A return of normal rainfall may bring an end to Illinois dust storms.

Why Curry is Out

Tammany has ousted its chieftain,
John P. Curry. That in itself is unusual, because Tammany has a habit of keeping its bosses as long as they live. But the reason is not far to seek.

Heretofore the riders of the Tammany tiger have been successful in guiding the animal into rich hunting grounds. They have kept astride the ground and he has been content to go where they directed, knowing that his appetite would be fully satisfied.

But Mr. Curry guided the tiger into sparse fields, and the animal has become lean and hungry, which is why
"they returned from the ride with Curry inside," but the tiger isn't smiling any more.

First off, Curry opposed the nomination of President Roosevelt and backed Al Smith. The Tammany delegation at Chicago lost its fight, and its leader sukked.

That put the organization outside the pale of federal patronage. Then came the fight for the office of Mayor of New York City. Tammany again
lost, and its candidate ran third.

Thousands of fat jobs were taken from the Tammany chief, and he had naught with which to hold his power or his following. The tiger's ribs are plainly visible.

Mr. Curry lost his usefulness to Tammany; he could no longer deal with the goods. Tammany took him out of circulation, and is now flirting with the powerful Washington Democrats
to regain favor. Needless to say,
promises to be good will be exacted
before the tiger again gets a square meal.

Forces For Good

An American college president, returning from a six-months tour during which he visited 28 different countries, admits the seriousness of war threat in many parts of the world. He found he believes, deliberate and malicious attempts to provoke war spirit
among nations.

At the same time he
found hopeful factors often overlooked by persons concentrating on the war scare.

"The forces for international unity
are stronger than they were a generation ago," says this observer.

That may seem contradictory, but need not be so. Wherever intelligent people hope and work to preserve
world peace, they are doing so not blindly, by mere wishful thinking.
They are seriously studying the causes of war in order to develop the cure. A competent observer becomes aware of the strength of the international peace movement as soon as he becomes aware of the strains and tensions
making for war. The forces for evil seem more powerful than ever before,
but the forces for good are also more powerful than ever and more numerous. Continued faith in them and a little steeper support of them by
all of us can hold the evil in check.

In Our Hair

Chicago Herald and Examiner
There is a vast difference between the custom of making schoolboys
mayors for a day and letting the
"college boys" actually run the national government. It is the difference between the harmless amusement of a schoolboy holiday with a little civic education on the side and an experimental picnic at the public expense.

The schoolboy mayors go back to school next day, but the "college boys"
stay on the job of meddling with and muddling the national administration.

As an experiment it has proved a costly failure by retarding recovery.
There is more recovery in the initiative and enterprise of the American people than in all the half-baked
theories of the misplaced college boys.
Send those boys back home and give
the country a chance to recover.

NIRA Gets Unvarnished
Truth on How It Stands...
Student Proves He Has Intelligence... Teeth Remain in Stocks Bill.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington, April 26.—The National Emergency Council has begun issuing a weekly report for New Deal officials
on the public attitude toward the NRA program, as telegraphed by each of its forty-eight state directors.

The report is labeled "Strictly Confidential" and is confined to unvarnished facts. Its most recent summary of the national trend says:

"With increased business in majority of industries and trades, employment is rising. Newspaper support falling away in some localities, partly due to politics.

"This is impairing friendly attitude of public to some extent. There is some sentiment in favor of state codes,
due to the feeling that they may function more effectively than corresponding national codes."

Reports of complaints and criticism
are as frequent as those of industrial and employment gains.

The hostility code is "widely violated" in New England, workers complain of discharges for union activities
and "many" complain that code authorities don't press trade practice
complaints.

Strikes are still "troublesome" in middle Atlantic states and discouragement over slowness in setting up code authorities is partly offset by promise of an accelerated compliance drive.

The south criticizes similar slowness.
Complaints are increasing and "unfavorable newspaper propaganda is bothersome" in central states, though
new compliance machinery and amen-
ability of code violators is helping.

GWA discontinuance had an unfavorable reaction in the southwest,
making merchants timid. Code authority organization and functioning
"need stimulation" in Rocky Mountain states.

On the Pacific coast "many complaints filed of violations of labor provisions of hotel, restaurant, motor vehicle, retailing, trucking, and construction codes. Employers and employees alike are discouraged over lack of vigorous action against flagrant violators."

Not Even Half as Crazy

At the White House, though attacks
on the "Brain Trust" are greeted deri-sively, they get fun out of telling this one to the New Deal professors.

A pompous, conceited professor, lecturing a class on a pet theory,
branched into an impromptu intelligence test.

"If I'm going to Europe next month
and the ship is 450 feet long and 175

feet wide, how old am I?" he asked.
"Forty!" responded a student, who was then called on to explain:
"Well, I'm 20 and I'm only half as crazy as you are."

Teeth Stay in Stocks Bill

The Wall street lobby tore some holes in the stock market control bill,
but the Pecora-Landis-Corcoran group
which framed that measure is secretly
pleased in the belief that it preserved
the principles of strict control in both House and Senate bills despite terrific pressure.

These "teeth" are imbedded in both bills: 1. Some control over credit for speculation—through margin provisions. 2. Forbidding of pool and other manipulations. 3. Requirement of fair adequate, and frequent reports to stockholders. 4. Authority for the supervising commission to change the rules of stock markets when the markets won't do so themselves.

Wall street, of course, is still foaming at the mouth and hoping to beat the bill. In urging an independent commission to administer the control act, it hoped to have appointed therein both Assistant Secretary of Commerce John Dickinson, who framed a mild and ignored regulatory bill, and John Hancock, partner
in Lehman Bros., New York bankers.

But Roosevelt said any such commission must also administer the Securities Act. And it's now certain that Federal Trade Commissioner
James Landis, Wall Street's worst foe,
will be transferred to the new commission—if there is one.

Also, Commissioner George C.
Matthews, a La Folletteite from Wisconsin, is a likely appointee.

WILL ROGERS
says:

To the Editor of the Journal and Courier:

Beverly Hills, Calif., April 26.—Most
of the news in the papers concern
Dillinger and Tugwell.

Mr. Tugwell is just one of the nicest
and most pleasant fellows you ever met in your life. All of those brain trust fellows are. But don't let 'em
start explaining something to you.
They get you down with theories, and then stomp on you with phrases. You start to raise up, and they will hit you
in the face with a thing called "dogma." Mr. Tugwell knocked a pretty smart bunch over lately with a "pair of dogmas" called "modernized
process, and experimental approach."

Einstein couldn't have had 'em as mentally goofy.

Final Enactment of High Tax Bill Nears

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

Washington, April 26.—(P)—A $417,- 000,000 new revenue bill, representing a surprising conference victory for the senate's high-tax bloc, is on its way
toward final congressional enactment.

Senate-house conferees on the bul-
ing tax measure came to agreement
last night after two days of nerve-racking work.

Their report accepted virtually all
the senate increases in estate and gift taxes, the capital stock and excess profits taxes, and liberal compromises over income tax publicity
and consolidated returns.

The conference agreement was complete except for the senate amendment adding 10 per cent to all individual income tax returns next year.

The house will take a separate vote on this. That chamber also will be the first to act on the conference report.

quired to send the measure to the white house.

It was generally believed today the senate would not insist on the 10 per cent Couzens proposal if the house
disapproved it.

Agreement on the bill cleared the way for early action on another major
measure—the reciprocal tariff proposal which the house has already passed.

The way tobacco is cut has a lot to do with the way Chesterfield
burns and tastes

There are many different ways
of cutting tobacco.

A long time ago, it used to be cut on what was known as a Pease Cutter, but this darkened the tobacco, and it was not uniform.

The cutters today are the most improved, modern, up-to-the-minute type. They cut uniformly, and cut in long shreds.

The tobacco in Chesterfield
is cut right—you can judge for yourself how Chesterfields burn
and how they taste.

Everything that science knows
is used to make Chesterfield
the cigarette that's milder...
the cigarette that tastes better.

They are here pictured at the spot where the arrest took place.

Apple Orchards May Blossom This Week at Decatur Meeting in Greene, Calhoun

Th apple blossoms in Calhoun county and other parts of central and southern Illinois are scheduled to be in full bloom on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week, if the weather is still favorable. A heavy rain the latter part of the week would probably destroy most of the bloom, the Jacksonville Automobile Club says in its weekly bulletin.

Louisville, Ky. Derby Day on May 5 will attract many motorists to this section. There are two good routes to Louisville and both are paved. The shorter one is via US-36 to Springfield, No. 24 to Pana, No. 16 to the junction of No. 129; No. 129 to Effingham; No. 33 to Newton; No. 130 to Olney; US-50 through Vincennes to Shoals, Ind. and thence on US-150 to Louisville. ### SCHUMACHER CATTLE DEMAND GOOD PRICE

Steers shipped to the National Stock Yards by H. H. Schumacher of Chapin, sold at the highest figure for their class when they brought $7.00 cwt on Wednesday, April 25th, according to reports from the Producers, who sold them. He had 4 red steers that attained the price.

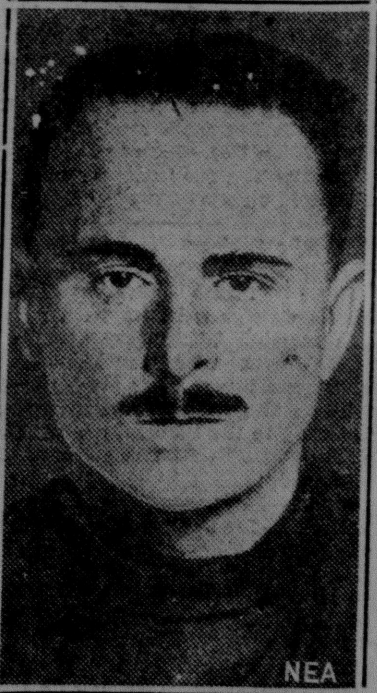

They attracted the top figure because of their extreme weight which was 1267 lbs. Weighty steers are now greatly in demand. In comparison, Schumacher also had two lightweight steers averaging 965 lbs. that were practically as fleshy which brought $6.00 cwt, considered a very good price that day.

Views Religion as Pathway to Peace

Dr. Paul R. Anderson, professor of the Bible and Philosophy department of MacMurray College, addressed the students of the college Thursday morning at the chapel service, using as his subject: "Religion as a Solution for the Abolishment of World Imperialism and Nationalism."

Dr. Anderson cited several incidents of early periods in history when European and Oriental countries had been unusually aggressive in nationalistic and imperialistic movements, from which had resulted wars and economic disorders. He then showed that the tendencies in all countries today lean toward this same type of movement.

The speaker presented the oft times suggested remedy for the abolition of this serious problem, namely: that there should be established a national religious culture based on love.

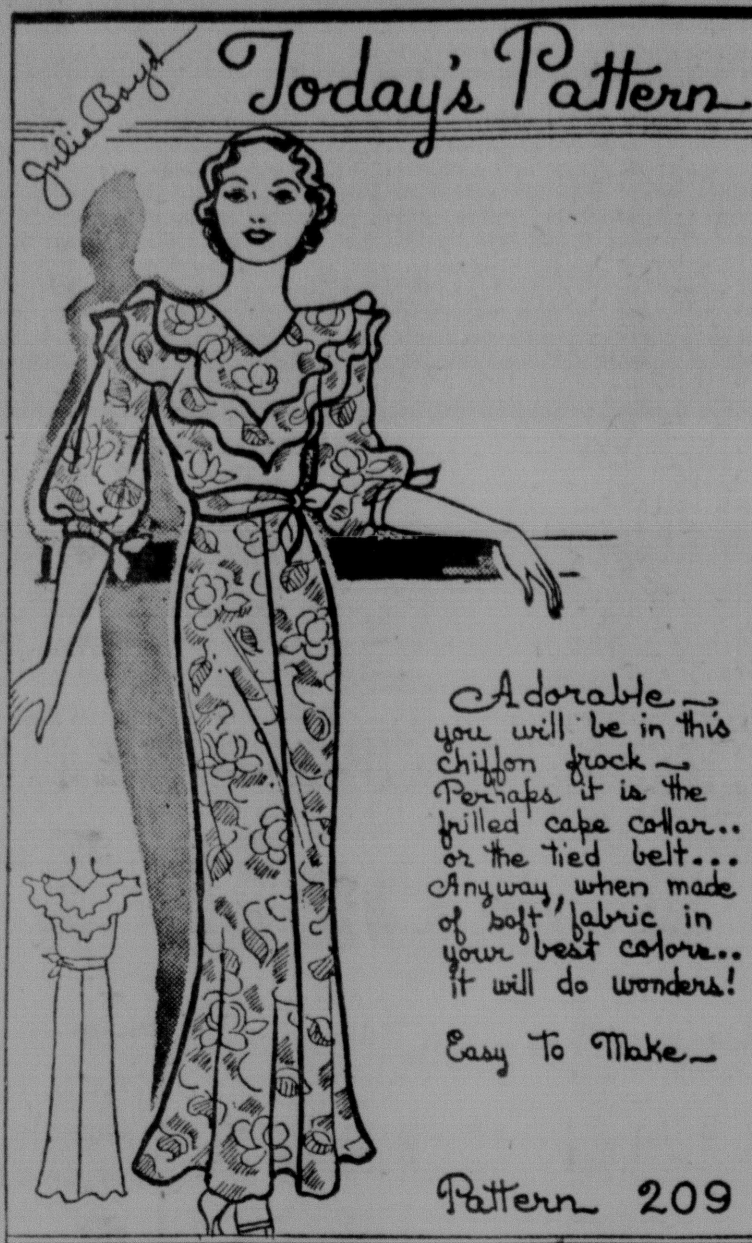

"Christianity has endeavored to do this," the speaker continued, "but the Christian nations have unfortunately been the leaders in the imperialistic and nationalistic movements."

Throughout Dr. Anderson's talk, he illustrated his points with experiences he has had with Oriental peoples and their customs, during his travels and work in the East.

The concluding appeal made by Dr. Anderson to the students was the suggestion that their fundamental duty in the problem of excluding imperialistic endeavors was to understand the cultures, racial groups, and attitudes toward life, of people in other countries. "One culture takes one direction, and another culture takes another direction, but all lead to the ultimate point of happiness."

Kenneth Miller of Virginia was a business caller here Thursday.

MRS. LUGG PRESENTS RECITAL AT COLLEGE

A most interesting and original recital was given Wednesday night by Mrs. Louise Gibson Lugg, senior in the Department of Speech at MacMurray College. The program, consisting of numerous selections from the field of recent and contemporary verse, centered about Whitman's theme:

"There was a child went forth every day.

And the first object he looked upon,

That object he became."

The selections dealt with many phases of nature's beauty: mist, clouds, stars reflected in the merely everyday puddle by the wayside—all with the thought of their influence upon man or of the lesson they may teach us, the "children" of God's universe.

Mrs. Lugg is to be commended not only for her scholarly and artistically built program, but also for the technical perfection of her interpretative word. Voice, enunciation, stage presence were all fully adequate to the task which Mrs. Lugg had set herself. As a reader Mrs. Lugg is fortunate in being able to accompany changing moods of thought with interpretative facial expression, a technique which was especially effective in her version of why birds have the various colorings of the rainbow and in her selection (Amy Lowell's) based upon New England local color material.

The evening was a decided treat to all who enjoy recent verse.

WASH OUT
15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep...Vigor...Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. They should pour out thru the bladder 3 pints of fluid a day which contains 4 pounds of waste. Frequent bladder passages with scanty amount cause burning and discomfort. The 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness. If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, a doctor's prescription which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Treatment of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Trust DOAN'S PILLS, the old reliable relief that contain no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

NRA Violator Free to Press Suits Again

Jacob Maged, the Jersey City, N. J., tailor, who aroused national interest when he was sentenced to jail for pressing a suit for 35 cents instead of the 40 cents set by the state industrial recovery act, is a free man who isn't "sore at anybody" and who thinks "the NRA is a good thing". He is shown putting up a Blue Eagle in his store after his release. Judge Robert V. Kinkead (inset), who freed Maged after he had served three days of a 30-day term, promised he'd be a Maged customer.

Traveler Describes
Easter Service in a Grecian Metropolis

By DR. JULIAN WADESWORTH

When we have met people here who have known the Capps, Rammekamps, Drs. Josephine Milligan and Grace Dewey, President and Mrs. Jaquith, Jacksonville, "the Athens of the West" has seemed very near to its Mother Athens in the East. We are meeting so many interesting people all the time. Saturday evening (before the Greek Easter), Mrs. Roosevelt, widow of President Roosevelt and her daughter were at the next table to us at dinner. Later they were on the same tribune with us, where the Mid-night Service of the Resurrection was held. This was a circular platform erected in the large square before the Cathedral which was to represent the Sepulchre of our Lord. About a hundred invited persons were there while literally thousands upon thousands were in the square and on the streets leading to it and crowding the windows and balconies. The utmost order prevailed as double rows of soldiers surrounded this improvised sepulchre. The most magnificent Byzantine choral music we had ever heard accompanied the service led by the Metropolitan (Arch-Bishop of All Greece). His name is the same as that of the ancient "Golden-mouthed Orator" of the Early Church, Chrysostom. I had called upon him and was received most graciously and simply. He gave a written invitation to occupy places on this small reserved place of the Holy Sepulchre.

Candle Lighting

Precisely at midnight, the Metropolitan, with lighted candle, appeared in the most gorgeous vestments of golden embroidery, and with a high mitre which seemed to be encrusted or embroidered with richest gems, emeralds, pearls, diamonds and they tell us these are real and most valuable—offered. Almost immediately, his candle lighted those beside him, and these gave their light to others. In an incredibly short time, the whole vast multitude had lighted candles and in all the windows in all the houses in Athens and in the distant great settlements on the mountainsides around could be seen the light, all of which had received their light from the one candle at the Sepulchre from which the risen Savior of the World was supposed to have come.

After one o'clock, we went up on the terrace of the hotel where we could see the whole surrounding country and lighted candles were everywhere. A most beautiful and memorable picture will be that of the descent of the thousands of people who had gone up to the little Church of Saint George on the top of Mount Lycabettus, the highest point in the city, a lofty rocky crag. They would carry their unlighted candles to that high place. After making the sacred procession around the tiny church, would wind their way down with newly lighted candles. It looked to us like a great golden serpent ever making its unbroken descent. And all this was at one o'clock Easter Morning.

Interesting People

To return to the subject of interesting personalities—the other evening, we could not fail to note the rare beauty and the unusual elegance of the evening costume of a young woman who sat near us in the dining room with a fine looking man. I think I have never seen a more brilliant necklace of large diamonds worn by any person—and really had only seen those like them in the collection of the Crown Jewels in the London Tower. I asked Mr. Schmid, the hotel proprietor who the couple might be. "He is His Royal Highness, the Crown Prince of Iraq, and she is a Turkish Princess whom he has married within this past week." He told me that the Prince has had his apartment here in the hotel for several months. I understand there is much displeasure because he has taken this beautiful Egyptian girl and not a daughter of Mesopotamia. As I understand it, his young cousin who has lately come to the throne has as yet no heir and this prince is now the Crown Prince. Iraq with its vast undeveloped resources of wealth is looked upon with not a little anxiety by the Powers in Central Europe, while Great Britain holds certain treaty rights to the "richest oil fields in the world."

Greek Refugees

But I had intended to tell you something about the Near East Foundation with which President Jaquith had such a prominent part while he was in Greece and the Near East. You can hardly imagine what a wonderful thing it has been for Greece to receive that vast host of refugees who came in upon them. Already Greece was crowded in its little territory, about the size of Illinois, with her five or six millions. Think of it, having a million and a half of Greeks, almost overnight, driven from their homes in Turkey and nowhere in the world where they could go but to their mother-land. Then came also vast numbers of Armenians and other persecuted people, and Greece had hardly enough to feed her own. What would Illinois have done to take care of such an influx of population?

We admire greatly these Greeks as they have heroically met the situation with the aid of the Near East Foundation and the guidance of those who are seeing the possibilities of the future. Great "Settlements" are being laid out in all parts of the Attican plains, just as would be in Illinois, large cities have been built up within these last ten years, since their expulsion from Smyrna and the Turkish territories. Already there has been a quick recovery and all Greece, instead of suffering by what seemed a calamity in having this avalanche of alien population poured in upon them, is proving a benefit. These foreigners are industrious and their presence has quickened the native activities so that one sees better industry, farming and trade.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMELAnd You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

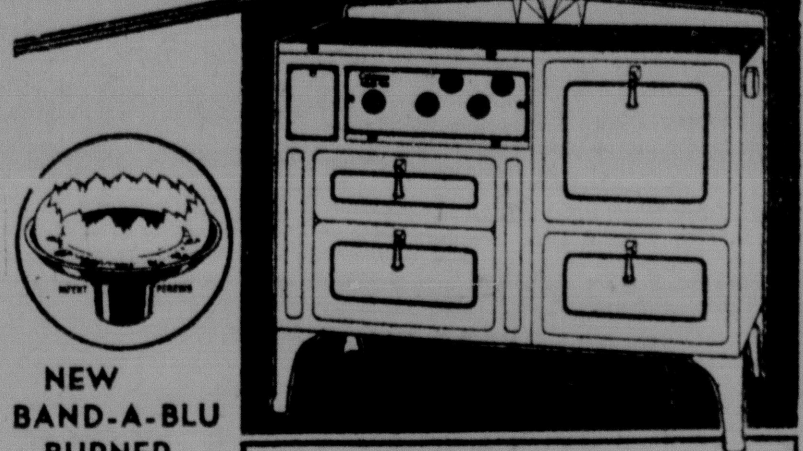

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C.M. Co.

Bethel Church Will Erase Debt of $1,100

Bethel A. M. E. church of Jacksonville, to which Rev. W. F. Seay was recently called as pastor, has launched a campaign among its members and friends to wipe out an $1,100 debt, which has been a burden for several years. Rev. Mr. Seay has worked out a program by which the church can free itself of debt, enabling it to continue service with a wider scope. He has enlisted the aid of a number of citizens of both races.

Bethel church has rendered a long and useful service to the colored people of Jacksonville. For many years one of the city's most honored citizens, the late S. W. Nichols, served as superintendent of the Sunday school. Later this work was taken over by Rev. John W. Kirk, one of his pupils. Believing that Bethel church is a real asset to the religious life of the community, a number of citizens have endorsed and assisted the campaign to clear the church of debt. Rev. Mr.

Seay reports the following citizens have given the campaign their hearty endorsement and support:

Carl O. Gordon, H. J. Rodgers, Mayor W. A. Wainwright, Lee Stice, John J. Reese, Charles Ray Grunty, L. B. Turner, L. T. Oxley, E. E. Crabtree, W. A. Fay, W. B. Rogers, Dr. C. P. McClelland, Earl M. Spink, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Hugh Green, E. L. Kinney, T. V. Hopper, A. D. Fairbank, Albert C. Metcalf, F. J. Andrews, Charles T. Mackness and Dr. W. P. Duncan.

These citizens constitute a board of sponsors for the campaign to erase the debt of Bethel church.

Standard's Control Rooms now release

Amount of usable energy increased to meet the needs

of today's high speed engines . . . at no

extra cost to you

Here, Live Power Licks Heavy Odds: Game all through, the heroic salmon fights its way up through the down-rushing torrents—and still has in reserve, plenty of live power to push on, through the last hard stretch, to the high upper reaches of the stream where it was born.

Because It Also Has Live Power in Reserve This Gasoline Asks No Favors: With plenty of responsive live power, Superfuel seeks no soft jobs, takes the tough hills in stride. Zooms up them with plenty to spare.

Standard's refining engineers have taken gasoline which a good many motorists considered practically perfect already and have definitely increased its live, usable power. It is done in the refining process—by converting heavy, slower parts of excellent gasoline into faster-acting units, in other words, into more Live Power per gallon.

This advance is important to you—from the standpoint of speed and engine-response for one thing; of greater operating economy, for another. Specifically: you may enjoy pushing the needle of your speedometer into the upper speed brackets when you strike a clear stretch. You may like a sprinting start when the light changes. You may enjoy zooming up hills. Obviously, more Live Power enables you to do those things.

On the other hand, if you're economy-minded—and enjoy leisurely touring on holidays, Sundays and during vacation—this added Live Power reduces the operating cost of your trip.

This spirited new fuel is ready to prove its worth in action—ready now—at your nearest Standard Oil Station. Try it!

Shakeup of Ashland School Faculty Has Resulted in Furore

Ashland, April 26.—Ashland Community High school's entire teaching staff was given the air by the board of education Tuesday night. The shakeup is so general that the janitor is included in the "house-cleaning."

Supt. J. E. Alsop, who also is athletic coach, and five other teachers will be affected by the board's action, according to announcement by the school officials. The "new deal" is said to have been inspired by the failure of the school to maintain an accredited rating, which later was restored.

Nothing has been done about replacing any of the teachers after the close of the present term.

The action of the school board provided this community with a subject of discussion into which almost every man, woman and child of high school age, participated. As a result, the community is somewhat divided on the subject of the "New Deal" thrust up in the school system by the board. There was some talk today among the student body about getting up a petition asking the board to reconsider its action in regard to some of the teachers, the favored ones not being announced.

An attitude of general apathy has been evidenced by some citizens toward the teaching staff of the high school since the school was removed from the accredited list by the state university some time ago. The school remained off the list for a period of two months, being placed back in good standing last fall. As a result of the dissatisfaction, expressed and implied, by the citizens, the school election of April 14 was one of more than general interest to the voters. However, R. F. Main, assistant cashier of the State Bank of Ashland, was re-elected over considerable opposition, and at the organization meeting was named president of District No. 212, Ashland Community High school.

The teaching staff is composed of the following:

Superintendent J. E. Alsop, who also is athletic director, has held the position of superintendent for two years, coming here from Payson.

Miss Christine Six, Ashland, who has been teaching English for the last ten years.

Miss Demontes Britt, LaHarpe, who has been teaching commercial subjects for about four years.

Miss Genevieve Hayes, Greenfield, for the last two years teacher of Latin and science.

Miss Lucy Robinson of near Ashland, for the last two years teacher of biology and mathematics.

Arthur Colburn, Canton, Mo., teacher of history and who acts as assistant coach. He came to the high school at the opening of the school year last fall.

Along with the teachers, the board declined to re-employ the janitor, Charles Weaver, who has served in that capacity for the last ten years.

First Lady Denies Furniture Profits

The charge of Senator Thomas D. Schall that the furniture plant owned by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt was selling furniture at five times the price charged for similar products of other factories, brought a sharp denial from the First Lady, who said the founders of the factory have "not made a cent." She is here shown examining displays of handwork by miners at the Commerce Building, where she issued her denial.

ATHLETICS NIP YANKEES 3 TO 2

New York, April 26.—(P)—Joe Casarella, the Athletics rookie hurler from Jersey City, and Frank Hayes, 19 year old sand-lot catcher, combined to give Philadelphia a 3 to 2 victory over the Yankees today.

Casarella scored his second victory over the Yanks as a relief hurler, holding them to three hits in 4 1/2 innings after replacing Mahaffey. Hayes broke a 2-2 tie in the ninth when he walloped a double to send in Higgins with the winning run.

Coleman's homer off Allen with Warstler on second in the third inning gave the A's their first two runs. The Yankees tied the count in the seventh when, with the bases full, the Philadelphia infield shifted to the right for Babe Ruth and the Bambino crossed them up by smashing a single to left.

FAN BREEZES

by Ernest Savage

Several changes in coaches in the near-by schools have been rumored, and two of them have been confirmed. Coach "Doc" McConnell, who has been guiding the Winchester athletic situation for the past two years, accepted a contract to head the Manchester schools next year, and the Ashland board of education lopped off its whole faculty, including Coach J. E. Alsop.

Ashland's troubles arose over the removal of the school from the University of Illinois accredited list, but the school was returned to favor last fall. Mr. Alsop was the superintendent during its removal and when it was re-instated.

Talking with several Ashland fans during the tournament here last night, we learned that most of the basketball fans were dissatisfied with the basketball team, despite the fact that they were winning steadily.

Alsop, as far as we could figure it, was unfortunate in that he was called upon to follow in the footsteps of Rolla Sorrells, who went to Athens. Sorrells was one of the most popular coaches in this part of the country, and his basketball teams were uniformly good. He left Ashland when the school district there lowered his salary to such an extent that it was possible for Athens to outbid them for his services.

McConnell's case at Winchester was entirely different. "Doc" rated as one of the best teachers in the Winchester schools, was tendered a contract for next year by the Winchester board, but in view of his acceptance of the Manchester position, will be unable to accept the Winchester offer.

We have heard, also that Coach Bill Strickland, of Pittsfield, has signed a contract to head the athletic department at Hannibal high school next year, but it may be just another one of those rumors.

All of the Illinois Valley coaches will get together tonight when they watch their athletes in the annual outdoor track and field championship joust.

Yesterday's rain went a long way toward putting the track and field in excellent shape for some record breaking performances. Last year the Valley boys splashed around in the mud and rain but despite unfavorable conditions, broke two records.

Newark, where Floyd Newkirk is pitching this year, is having excellent turn outs for his games. On the opening day of the season they drew 13,000 to the park. Vito Tamulis, who also trained with Newkirk and the Yankees, is hurling for the Newark club also.

TIGERS DEFEAT WHITE SOX 2 TO 1

Detroit, April 26.—(P)—Detroit's Tigers jumped back into first place in the White Sox, 2 to 1, with the help of Hank Greenberg's bat and Vic Sorrell's mighty arm.

Sorrell went the route for the Tigers, giving only five hits, and never more than one hit in any inning. Greenberg hit a pair of doubles which figured in the scoring of Detroit's two runs. Uhl scored the tie tally for the Sox on a single by Luke Appling.

LUMBERJACKS TO PLAY BLUEBOYS HERE SATURDAY

Springfield Muncy League Champions To Bring Team Here—Nussipickel Hopes His Boys Will Get Some Left Handed Pitching.

Fitzpatrick Lumberjacks, of Springfield, muncy league champions there last year, will come here Saturday for a game with the Illinois College Blueboys, Coach Raymond Nussipickel announced yesterday. Illinois had an open date and was after some tough opposition in order to get ready for the remainder of the Little 19 schedule.

"Lefty" Honn, former Eastern Teacher star, who has been pitching for the Lumberjacks in past seasons, probably will be their mound selection. The Blueboy coach hoped to get a little left handed pitching from his opponents, because of their "weakness" against post riders.

Just who will do the flinging for the Blueboys has not been decided, but Russell Davis, who chucked his way to a win over the Monmouth team in the opening game of the Little 19 season here, may be selected. He is about the only Blueboy who is not injured in some manner.

PHILLIES WHIP GIANTS 3 TO 2

Philadelphia, April 26.—(P)—After suffering seven consecutive defeats in one of the most dismal starts of any campaign on record, the Phillies today came through with their first victory of the season, downing the New York Giants 3 to 2.

Fidely Phil Collins, the veteran right hander, bore the burden of the victory, twirling five hit ball. He was in trouble several times because of giving five walks.

Ethan Allen provided the winning punch in the sixth just after the Giants had tied the score for the second time, clouding a home run, his third hit of the game. Previously he had driven in the first run in the opening inning, sending home Bartell with a single.

New York tied it up first on a pass to Ott, Jackson's double and Watkins' fly which allowed Ott to score from third.

The Phils came right back to regain the lead in the same inning when Hurst doubled, took third on Allen's single and scored when Wilson hit into a double play.

In the sixth game Giants collected their final run when Terry doubled and tallied on Ott's single and a force play at second.

Gus Mancuso made his first appearance of the season behind the plate for the Giants in the seventh.

Field records appear to be the safest of the lot, with excellent marks expected to go by the boards as the contestants perform as they have performed in meets previously this season. From all over the conference have come reports of good times in the shorter runs, and hurdlers have shown up well in previous meets.

Junior Brant, Pittsfield, who holds two records at present, is the only record holder who will be back to defend his titles. Brant set the record for the 100 yard dash two years ago when he covered the distance in 10.5 seconds, and last year leaped to a new record in the broad jump. He also will compete in the high jump. Given good track conditions several new marks may be put on the record books.

Fighting bitterly against the proposal for sex education courses in primary schools, several hundred Mexico City parents, mostly mothers, battled police who attempted to halt their protest meeting. ## AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE SALE OF ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF JACK-SONVILLE, ILLINOIS:

SECTION 1. Purpose. This Ordinance shall be construed to the end that the health, safety and welfare of the people of this city shall be protected and temperance in the consumption of alcoholic liquors shall be fostered and promoted.

SECTION 2. Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the words and phrases herein defined are used in this Ordinance in the sense given them in the following definitions.

(1) The word "alcohol" means the product of distillation of any fermented liquid, whether rectified or diluted, whatever be the origin thereof, and including synthetic ethyl alcohol. It does not include denatured alcohol or wood alcohol.

(2) The word "spirits" means any beverage which contains alcohol obtained by distillation, mixed with water or other substance in solution, and includes brandy, rum, whiskey, gin, or other spirituous liquors, and such liquors when rectified, blended or otherwise mixed with alcohol or other substances.

(3) The word "wine" means any alcoholic beverage obtained by the fermentation of the natural contents of fruits or vegetables, containing sugar, including such beverages when fortified by the addition of alcohol or spirits, as above defined.

(4) The word "beer" means a beverage obtained by alcoholic fermentation of an infusion or concoction of barley, or other grain, malt and hops in water, and includes, among other things, beer, ale, stout, lager beer, porter and the like.

(5) The phrase "alcoholic liquor" includes the four varieties of liquor above defined, (alcohol, spirits, wine and beer) and every liquid or solid, patented or not, containing alcohol, spirits, wine or beer, and capable of being consumed as a beverage by a human being. The provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to alcohol used in the manufacture of denatured alcohol, nor to any liquid or solid containing one-half of one per cent, or less, of alcohol by volume. Nor shall the provisions of this Ordinance apply to flavoring extracts, concentrates, syrups, or medicinal, mechanical, scientific, culinary or toilet preparations, or food products unfit for beverage purposes, but the provisions of this Ordinance shall not be construed to exclude, or not apply to, alcoholic liquor used in the manufacture, preparation or compounding of such products. None of the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to wine intended for use, and used, by any church or religious organization for sacramental purposes.

(6) The phrase "original package" means any bottle, flask, jug, can, cask, barrel, keg, hoghead or other receptacle or container, whatsoever, used, corked or capped, sealed and labeled by the manufacturer of alcoholic liquor, to contain and to convey any alcoholic liquor, but it shall in no instance contain less than one pint by volume, except in respect to beer.

(7) The phrase "package sale" means the sale of or offering for sale at retail of alcoholic liquor, in the original package, and not to be consumed or in fact consumed in whole or in part on the premises where sold.

(8) The phrase "consumption sales" means the sale of or offering for sale at retail of any alcoholic liquor for consumption on the premises where sold.

(9) The word "manufacturer" means every brewer, fermenter, distiller, rectifier, wine maker, blender, bottler or other person who fills or refills any original package and others engaged in brewing, fermenting, distilling, rectifying, or bottling alcoholic liquors as above defined.

(10) The word "restaurant" means any public place kept, used, maintained, advertised and held out to the public as a place where meals are served, and where meals are actually and regularly served, without sleeping accommodations, such space being provided with adequate and sanitary kitchen and dining room equipment and capacity and having employed therein a sufficient number and kind of employees to prepare, cook and serve suitable food for its guests.

(11) The word "club" means a corporation organized under the laws of this State, not for pecuniary profit, solely for the promotion of some common object other than the sale or consumption of alcoholic liquors, kept, used and maintained by its members, through the payment of annual dues, and through owning, hiring or leasing a building or space in a building, of such extent and character as may be suitable and adequate for the reasonable and comfortable use and accommodation of its members and their guests and provided with suitable and adequate kitchen and dining room space and equipment and maintaining a sufficient number of serving and employees for cooking, preparing and serving food and meals for its members and their guests; provided that the affairs and management of such club are conducted by a board of directors, executive committee or similar body chosen by the members at their annual meeting, and that no members or any officer, agents, or employee of the club is paid, or directly or indirectly receives, in the form of salary or other compensation any profits from the distribution or sale of alcoholic liquor to the club or the members of the club or its guests introduced by members beyond the amount of such salary as may be fixed and voted at any annual meeting by the members or by its board of directors or other governing body out of the general revenue of the club.

(12) The word "hotel" means every building or other structure kept, used, maintained, advertised and held out to the public to be a place where food is actually served and consumed and sleeping accommodations are offered for adequate pay to travelers and guests, whether transient, permanent or residential, in which twenty-five (25) or more rooms are used for the sleeping accommodations of such guests and having one or more public dining rooms where meals are served to such guests, such sleeping accommodations and dining

(13) The word "sale" means any transfer, exchange or barter in any manner or by any means whatsoever for a consideration, and includes and means all sales made by any person, whether principal, proprietor, agent, servant or employee.

(14) The words "owner" or "proprietor" shall include all persons who are owners of or are in control of any place where the sale or distribution of alcoholic liquor is carried on, whether they be individuals, partners, corporations, joint stock companies, fiduciaries or officers, directors, stockholders or of corporations or otherwise.

(15) The phrase "licensed premises" shall mean the premises described in the license.

(16) The phrase "local liquor control commissioner" shall mean the Mayor, and such persons as he may appoint to assist him in the duties thereof.

SECTION 4. Licenses—Classes and Fees. Licenses to sell alcoholic liquors at retail shall be of the following classes:

(1) A class "A" license shall entitle the licensee to sell beer at retail for consumption on or off the premises where sold. The license fee for a class "A" license shall be $50.00 per annum.

(2) A class "B" license shall entitle the licensee to sell beer and wine at retail for consumption on or off the premises where sold; provided wine sold under a class "B" license shall not contain more than 13.75 per centum of alcohol by volume, nor more than 11 per centum of alcohol by weight. The license fee for a class "B" license shall be $250.00 per annum.

(3) A class "C" license shall entitle the licensee to sell alcoholic liquors in package sales at retail not for consumption on the premises. The license fee for a class "C" license shall be $150.00 per annum.

(4) A class "D" license shall entitle the licensee to sell alcoholic liquors at retail for consumption on or off the premises. The license fee for a class "D" license shall be $500.00 per annum.

Separate applications must be filed for separate classes of licenses by any applicant desiring to carry on more than one licensed business. And a separate license must be obtained for each location, by any applicant desiring to carry on a licensed business at more than one location.

All licenses shall expire on December 31st of the calendar year during which the same are issued. Provided, however, that a licensee holding a class "D" license may have such class "D" license discontinued for the last six months of any calendar year, by giving notice to the local liquor control commissioner not later than June 15 of such calendar year of his desire to discontinue as such class "D" licensee, and such discontinuance shall not prejudice such licensee in securing another license of a different class, or in securing a class "D" license at a later date.

For any license issued on and after July first of any calendar year, the license fee shall be one-half of the amount specified in this section. But there shall be no further fraction or division of the license fee payable under this Ordinance. All license fees shall be payable in semi-annual installments in advance on or before the 2nd day of January and the 1st day of July of each calendar year, except class "A" license fees, which shall be payable in one annual payment in advance.

SECTION 5. Clubs. Any club shall be entitled to obtain a permit and a license for the sale of alcoholic liquors for consumption on the premises permanently occupied by any such club. Clubs established one year or more prior to the adoption of this Ordinance shall pay an annual permit fee of $100.00 per annum. Clubs established subsequent to a date one year prior to the adoption of this Ordinance shall pay an annual permit fee of $400.00 per annum.

SECTION 6. Location Restrictions. Sales Prohibited in Certain Territory.—Exceptions Stated. No license shall be issued for the sale at retail of any alcoholic liquor within one hundred (100) feet of any church, school, hospital, home for aged or indigent persons or for veterans, their wives or children or any military or naval station; provided, that this provision shall not apply to hotels offering restaurant service, regularly organized groups, or to restaurants, food shops or other places where sale of alcoholic liquors is not the principal business carried on, if such place of business so exempted shall have been established for such purposes prior to the taking effect of this Ordinance. vision conflict with any of the provisions as to location otherwise herein set forth.

SECTION 7. Licenses—No Vested Interest—Changes. A license, or licenses, to any individual shall not be construed as creating any vested interest; it shall not be subject to execution or to transfer or assignment from the licensee to any other person. A license shall be restricted to use on the premises stated in the application therefor, provided that a licensee may change his place of business to another location after approval by the local liquor control commissioner and the payment of a fee of $5.00.

BILLIARD FANS
SEE HOPPE PLAY

More than 300 billiard enthusiasts gathered at the Drexel Parlor last night to see Willie Hoppe, former 18.2 ball line champion, display his skill. It was the expert's second visit to Jacksonville, he having played here with Jake Schaeffer and Charles Peterson, seventeen years ago.

Those who witnessed the exhibition seventeen years ago and again last night failed to see any indication that the master of the cue and ivory balls had lost any of his skill.

Hoppe opened the exhibition by playing 100 points 18.2 ball line billiards, with Gerald Gilliland as an opponent. Hoppe made five trips to the table and finished the game with an unfinished run of 27. Gilliland gathered in 8 billiards for his efforts.

The two players then switched to three cushion billiards and again Hoppe proved to be the best player, defeating Gilliland 25 to 18.

Hoppe then provided the audience with several thrills by making what most of the fans considered impossible shots.

The former champion executed masse and draw shots with the greatest skill. He also made a "jump" shot that brought applause from the crowd present.

Hoppe left for Alton immediately after his appearance here, being scheduled to appear there at 10 o'clock. He will go to Washington, D. C., next week to complete his tour.

For the past week or more the presence of more than the usual number of department of justice agents has been noted at headquarters here and in the vicinity of Rutland, Vt.

Roy H. Leonard, chief of police in Rutland, Vermont, tonight said that he estimated there were at least 20 department of justice agents in Rutland on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. These men, he said, were scattered about the city, and all of them were armed.

"I first learned of their activities," the chief said, "when mothers of the boys and the caddies at the Rutland Country club complained to me about their sons being questioned. I immediately went to the agents, who proved to me they had authority to conduct the investigation. They said their orders from Washington were that no one was to be taken into their confidence, and they gave me no further explanations of their presence in Rutland."

"BLACK BLIZZARDS" SWEEPING STATES IN WEST; MAY HIT CROPS

Chicago, April 26.—(AP)—Black blizzards sweeping over the middle west are menacing crops in huge areas of the "world's bread basket."

Dust and sand storms are common and prostrate events in many states west of the Mississippi river, but are generally a phenomena east of that stream. However, vast clouds of flying dust recently have dimmed sunlight and cast a peculiar haze over many localities far east of the river.

Disastrous storms have been sweeping the wheat country blowing dust and dirt for many miles, piling it up against snow fences until they were buried.

Meteorologists have been asked to explain these storms and tell of the probable damage that either has or might result.

Eric Miller, federal meteorologist at Madison, Wis., attributes the "blizzards" to the past two or three years of drought. Strong winds are now picking up fine particles of soil pulverized by the hot sun. This dust, he said, falls when it becomes moist while traveling over areas where evaporation of lake, river or swamp waters is taking place. He said little crop damage results from such a storm because as much dust is blown out of a state as comes in.

Other meteorologists are not altogether agreed with Miller as to the crop damage. H. L. Walster, dean of the Agricultural College at Bismarck, N. D., said the situation was "undoubtedly serious."

The workers obtained an agreement for negotiations with individual carriers for ending part time work and furloughs, increasing employment and giving more money to the low paid workers.

The wage agreement runs one year from July 1.

Neither side may bring up the subject again until May 1, 1935, supplying the period of stabilization urged by the president.

"The rain beats the young bugs down into the ground and 'muddies' them in so they die. Also dampness and high humidity are favorable to the spread of the white fungus disease which attacks the insects.

"Likewise if a period of very wet weather occurs in August, starlings about the first and continue throughout the month the second brood of chinch bugs will be greatly reduced. Usually this means no damage the following year,"

"It sounds amazingly good. But are you sure you have tonight free?"

"That's right. And not very darn important down there either. But it pleases dad to see me hanging around."

He shrugged. He had wanted terribly to study landscape gardening but his father had refused to admit there even was such a thing. So Perry was an indifferently good lawyer and no longer mentioned ever having wanted to plan gardens.

"How's your mother?" Stanley remembered her as being an exceedingly stout woman with a mania for bridge and maroon glaces.

"Mother's fine. She's given up her bridge club and reduced twenty pounds. Doctor's orders. I must take you up to see her—she always thought you were nice."

"So did I," he added a second later, in a slightly different voice. "You know, Stan, I was rather badly in love with you that winter—it took me months to recover."

"Why did you let me go, Perry?" Stanley asked the question abruptly, staring at him over the unlighted tip of her cigarette. "Why didn't you marry me and keep me here. I'd have been much happier."

"You mean—you've been unhappy?"

She nodded. "Frightfully. Not that I knew it—at first, I mean. I just trailed around with Aunt Julie, not caring much. Then quite suddenly I cared a lot. All at once, everything seemed so sort of dull, so terribly futile. I felt as though I was missing something, Perry, something sort of sweet, you know—and terribly important."

She laughed suddenly, a bit unsteadily. "It sounds silly, doesn't it? But some way I feel as if I must make up for something—if you see what I mean—sort of snatch at happiness."

Perry scowled reflectively. "I don't imagine it will be necessary to do much snatching."

"But I'm greedy, Perry," her voice was grave. "I want terribly to be amused. Are you much too busy to bother with me?"

He met her eyes levelly. Told her in his clipped, pleasant drawl, "I most certainly am not. It would probably be much better for me if I were." Then he asked her to go to a party with him that night.

ASSESSMENTS ARE DISCUSSED AT COUNCIL MEET

Status of Assessments Explained By City Treasurer at Meeting

Deciding that it was inadvisable at this time to attempt to do anything with the $150,000 in the special assessment account in the hands of the city treasurer, the city council at a special meeting last night, heard reports of the condition of numerous special assessments, considered various possibilities of cleaning up or speeding up payments of accounts and adjourned without taking any definite action.

City Treasurer Carl E. Hamilton had the floor most of the evening, explaining the status of various assessments. In a few cases he recommended rebates to the persons assessed, but in most cases he pointed out that the city would have to pay out of its general corporate fund deficits in some of the special assessment accounts.

Out of the meeting came several facts. The city treasurer told of the difficulties which confronted him when he took over the books of the city's special assessment funds. City Attorney Orville Foreman, present at the meeting, explained the progress of the city's suit against the Ayers National Bank, stating that he expected the case would be brought to trial within the next two or three weeks.

The city lost possession of $148,000 in special assessment funds when the bank was closed, and the suit instituted to release these funds for the use of the city, or any part which the city can obtain. The bank holds approximately $60,000 worth of bonds issued by the city which the city attorney hopes to have offset against the $148,000 in the hands of the city treasurer when the bank closed. If the offset is allowed, the city will have a claim of $88,000 against the bank, of which $8,800 is due the city as its part of the ten percent payment made to all depositors.

Lose in Bank
Almost every one of the special assessment accounts suffered through the closing of the bank. Mr. Hamilton pointed out. In almost every account, the closing of the bank deprived persons who had paid special assessments of any possibility of rebates. Only relatively small assessments appeared to be in such condition that rebates could be made.

No rebates were decided upon by the council, however, because of the pending suit against the Ayers National Bank. Any bonds called in at the present time could be paid only by a small percent of their face value, and the city attorney advised the council against making any percentage payments, particularly on bonds held by the bank, in view of the possibility of getting an offset.

Still another impediment in the way of calling in bonds at present for a percentage payment is the cost involved in such a procedure. Mr. Hamilton explained that it would cost about $50 or more to call in a bond, and that by the time advertising, mailing and express charges had been paid, the cost would take too much out of the account to make the payment worth while.

Failure of past administrations to call for bonds when they were due and when there was money on hand to take up the obligations is another fact which works toward the prevention of making rebates. In a few of the special assessment accounts examined, the city treasurer pointed out that interest was allowed to accumulate on these bonds long after they were due simply because the bonds were not called. The calling of bonds automatically stops the interest.

Inspect 32 Accounts
The council looked into 32 special assessment accounts before calling their labor at an end. Four accounts appeared to be in condition to make rebates at some future date, but in only one of the 32 accounts examined will the rebate be substantial. The Special Assessment No. 179, East Dunlap Street Water Main, was reported to be in condition to make about a 25 percent rebate to property owners.

Even in this assessment, it was pointed out, there was an overpayment of $45.87 in interest charges because outstanding bonds were not called at the proper time. The account also had tied up in the bank when it closed $16.92.

Mayor Wainwright, who conducted the meeting, declared that he was in favor of making a rebate wherever possible. The city treasurer explained that he has been informed by municipal accountants that it is the practice to turn over to the general corporate funds all funds which would not permit a five or ten percent or more rebate to the property owners, because the city, through its corporate fund, is put to the expense of maintaining an office for the collection of special assessments.

Other special assessments which appeared to be in condition to make rebates were No. 148, East Morton Avenue paving; 151, Edgemon Street Sewer; 172, Cox, Hockenhill and Ashland Avenue Water Main; and the East State Street Lighting Assessment, No. 167.

Prior to the discussion of the financial situation, the council assented in a request voiced by the American Legion that they be allowed to stage a carnival here in order to raise money for the coming district Legion convention, without the payment of the customary license fee. No formal action was taken, however.

FIRE DAMAGES WARD RESIDENCE HERE THURSDAY

Fireman is Overcome By Smoke And Heat in Fight Against Blaze

Fire believed to have originated from an overheated furnace badly damaged the residence and furniture of Charles H. Ward on West College avenue yesterday afternoon. One fireman was overcome by smoke while battling the flames and carried from the building.

The fire was discovered by Miss Florence Ward about 2:40 o'clock. Miss Ward had been absent from the house but a short time and upon her return found the interior in flames.

The fire started over the furnace, licked its way thru the floor and burned an area about 25 feet in diameter almost to the roof.

The fire department made a quick run to the residence, but firemen were hampered by the dense smoke and extreme heat. The fire fighters, however, were able to keep the flames held by the bank, in view of the possibility of getting an offset.

Still another impediment in the way of calling in bonds at present for a percentage payment is the cost involved in such a procedure. Mr. Hamilton explained that it would cost about $50 or more to call in a bond, and that by the time advertising, mailing and express charges had been paid, the cost would take too much out of the account to make the payment worth while.

COUNTY BOARD TO SET $1,000 FEE FOR LIQUOR SALE

Expect To Adopt Resolution Today Providing Regulation in Morgan Co.

If the board of commissioners of Morgan county adopt the resolution they were drafting yesterday it will mean that unincorporated sections of the county will be virtually "dry" insofar as the sale of beverages of high alcoholic content is concerned, although they will make it possible to retail any drink. The resolution they were preparing yesterday provides for a license fee of $1,000 where the applicant desires to sell alcoholic liquors at retail. This will mean that few, if any persons will make application for this type of license it is believed.

It is expected that a resolution designed for the control of alcoholic drinks sale in Morgan county will be adopted today by the commissioners. The resolution was being drafted yesterday in the office of State's Attorney W. H. Absher, and while the county officials said there may be some changes in their plans for the regulations they were working on Thursday, it is possible that they will be adopted as drafted.

The resolution proposed is similar to the city ordinance adopted here this week in most respects. It provides that the local liquor control commission means the chairman of the county board of commissioners and any persons he may appoint to assist him.

Types of Licenses
There are various types of licenses. Class A being one which permits the sale of beer at retail for consumption on or off the premises where sold. The fee is $25 per year.

A Class B license is one which provides for the sale of beer and wine at retail on or off the premises, where sold. The fee is $25 per year. The fee is $250 per year. The Class C license for which a fee of $1,000 is contemplated provides for the sale of all alcoholic liquors.

The adoption of the resolution now being planned by the county officials would mean that separate applications must be made for separate classes of licenses, and a separate license must be procured for each location. All licenses expire on April 30, of each year.

Under the head of clubs the resolution is expected to provide that any country club is entitled to obtain a permit and not a license for sale of beer only for consumption on or off the premises. The fee is $25 per year for clubs established one or more years prior to the adoption of the resolution. Clubs established subsequent to the adoption of the resolution will be required to pay a fee of $500 per year.

License Non-Transferable
No license is transferable the resolution now provides and a location change can not be made upon the payment of $5. No license will be issued for the sale at retail of alcoholic drinks within 100 feet of a church, school or hospital, except as it applies to hotels offering restaurant service.

Like the city ordinance the resolution provides that beer only may be sold on Sundays, and that the closing hour is one o'clock a. m.

Each license will be subject to revocation and subject to change without notice to conform with the state law or any resolution adopted by the board, the proposed regulations provide.
